

eternal

Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption
policy

eternal

Table of Contents

- I. Background
- II. Applicability
- III. What is prohibited under the policy?
 - bribe
 - kickback
 - facilitation payment
 - anything of value
- IV. How will compliance be ensured under the policy?
 - gifts
 - hospitality (meals, entertainment and travel)
 - political contributions
 - charitable contributions
 - dealing with third parties
 - claims by employees for payments made for gift, and hospitality
 - books, records and internal controls
 - communication and trainings
 - raising your concern and action for non-observance
- V. Dealing with third parties
- VI. Books, records and internal controls
- VII. Communications and trainings
- VIII. Raising your concern and action for non-observance
- IX. Compliance
- X. Breach of this policy
- XI. Waivers
- XII. Amendment
- XIII. Interpretation

1. Background

Eternal Limited (“Company”) strictly prohibits bribery and corruption in any form. Employees must comply with all applicable laws relating to gifts, bribery, corruption, facilitation payments and other improper payments. Even in countries where the local law does not prohibit such conduct, it is strictly prohibited for Employees to make any payment to any person or persons, including public or private officials, customers, merchants or employees or consultants or any other third party dealing with the Company to obtain or retain business, influence business decisions or secure an unfair advantage.

This Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption policy (“Policy”) has been adopted by the Board of Directors of Eternal Limited and this Policy along with the Code of Conduct and other Eternal policies forms the foundation of a resilient culture- “To always be ready for the sunshine test”

The Company will uphold all laws relevant to countering bribery and corruption in all the jurisdictions in which it operates. It remains bound by local, national and international laws.

Regulatory references:

This Policy complies with the requirements, as envisaged by various laws and regulations, as below, to administer good governance practices:

- Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, 1977 (FCPA);
- United Kingdom Bribery Act, 2010 (UKBA);
- Prevention of Corruption (Amendment) Act, 2018 and its amendments (PCA).

2. Applicability

This Policy shall apply to all employees, directors and stakeholders or third parties of Eternal Limited

3. What is prohibited under the policy?

a. Bribe:

You must not engage in any form of bribery, in dealings with any foreign/ public official, private party or any third party (such as an agent or intermediary) either directly or indirectly, in order to improperly influence any act or decision of a person, or to otherwise gain an improper benefit for the Company.

Bribe can take many forms, for example any offer, promise, receipt or payment of:

- money (or cash equivalents such as shares);
- unreasonable gifts, entertainment or hospitality;
- kickbacks;
- unwarranted rebates or excessive commissions (e.g., to sales agents or marketing agents);
- unwarranted allowances or expenses;
- political/ charitable contributions;
- uncompensated use of company services or facilities; and
- anything else of value.

eternal

- b. Kickback: You must not make or accept kickbacks. Kickbacks are typically payments made in return for a business favor or advantage. A kickback is a form of corruption that involves two parties agreeing that a portion of their sales or profits will be kicked back (given back) to the purchasing party, in exchange for making the deal.
- c. Facilitation payment: You must not make facilitation payments. Certain countries may have a practice of 'facilitation payments', which are payments to government officials to expedite or ensure routine actions, such as issuing visas, work permits, licenses etc. We do not partake in any of these, nor do we allow Third parties acting on our behalf, such as merchants, vendors, agents, customers, consultants, alliance partners, suppliers and contractors to make any such payments.
- d. Anything of value: Include any benefits, favors or advantage (with no minimum amount or threshold). It may be in any form, tangible (such as cash or cash equivalents, hospitality, cars, jewelry, home improvements, travel, loans, shares, etc.) or intangible (such as inside information, stock tips and improper assistance in arranging a business transaction).

4. How will compliance be ensured under the policy?

The clauses set forth in this Policy are applicable to all employees and third parties. It is therefore your responsibility to follow and adhere to all clauses described in this Policy. In countries where there are more stringent applicable laws, regulations or industry codes, Eternal requires compliance with the most restrictive requirement and the principles set out in this Policy shall stand superseded in those specific countries.

a. Gifts

This Policy does not prohibit normal, reasonable, appropriate, modest and bona fide corporate/ customary gifts (given and received), if its purpose is to improve the Company's image, present products and services or establish cordial relations. Few considerations, as below, to be kept in mind prior to giving or accepting gift(s).

- Cash: gift is not received / given in the form of cash;
- Moderate value: gift received is of estimated value of INR 5,000 or equivalent local currency;
- Customary and appropriate. Gift is considered a customary and appropriate business gift in the country where it is offered. For e.g., gifts received during festivals, such as Diwali, Christmas, etc.;
- No favored treatment: The gift is not offered / accepted in expectation of special or favored treatment;
- Legal: Offering or accepting the gift is not in violation of applicable law.

If all the above conditions are met, then the employee should disclose in line with this Policy prior to giving or accepting such gift.

This clause is to be read in conjunction with the Conflict of Interest policy.

b. Hospitality (meals, entertainment and travel)

eternal

Eternal appreciates hospitality, however, hospitality in the form of meals, entertainment and travel may be provided to anyone (including yourself or third parties or foreign/ public officials) or may be taken but should be in connection with a legitimate business purpose only. Meals, entertainment and travel are prohibited to family members or close business associates of Third parties or foreign/ public officials. Meals, entertainment and travel expenses incurred in an effort to sell products or services or to influence/promote business, labor or governmental decision-making are strictly prohibited.

This clause is to be read in conjunction with the Global travel policy.

c. Claims by employees for payments made for gift, and hospitality:

Employees need to take prior approval for making payments for gifts and hospitality of third parties or foreign/ public officials as per this Policy. Reimbursement for such expenses incurred will only be processed if cost approval is raised on Zoho prior to incurring the expense, as per Company's guidelines mentioning details, such as name of the party entertained, recipient of the gift and hospitality and the business reasons for the gift or hospitality etc. The duly sanctioned pre-approval, together with original receipts / invoices, must be attached with the reimbursement claim.

d. Political contributions:

Eternal is Apolitical. We respect our right to engage in political activities in personal capacity, provided we do not act, or give the impression of acting, as a representative of the Company and do it solely in personal capacity. The Company will not make donations or contributions, whether in cash or kind, in support of any political parties or candidates.

e. Charitable contributions

Eternal endeavors to be a positive contributor to the development of the community and in this endeavor, it sponsors various community development programs and makes charitable contributions. Few considerations, as below, to be kept in mind prior to making any contribution or agreeing to sponsor an event:

- All requests need to be in writing, documenting the nature, purpose, value and recipient of the Charitable Contribution;
- All requests must be accompanied by approval from the General Counsel and Governance, Risk & Compliance Head to ensure that the Company is not exposed to any risk;
- At the minimum, this process must include a background check on the entity and the key individuals and their relationships with government entities and officials, politically exposed persons (PEP), if any. The process must also attempt to establish the organization's track record and reputation;
- All contributions will be made by the Company and not by Employee in his/ her individual capacity; and
- All contributions will be evidenced by a receipt/ acknowledgement that should be documented and maintained on record.

5. Dealing with third parties

We understand that various applicable anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws make Eternal responsible for the acts of our third parties and others acting on our behalf. Therefore, no third party, acting on behalf of Eternal may engage in any act that could be construed as bribery or corruption, whether using Eternal funds or their own personal funds or whether acting directly or through a middleman. Eternal expects all those acting on our behalf to abide by our standards of ethics and integrity and, where necessary and appropriate, to follow our procedures. While engaging with third parties, employees should ensure that they comply with Eternal's Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy. If any employee becomes aware that the third party is engaged in bribery or corruption, he/she should immediately report his/her concern following the procedure set out in our "Vigil Mechanism and Whistle-Blower Policy".

This clause is to be read in conjunction with the third party risk management framework.

Intermediary: An Intermediary is a third party service provider, merchant, agent, consultant, distributor, contractor, vendor, supplier, or other third party, whether an individual or an entity engaged on a contract basis, or retained, in any business function that requires or involves interaction with any foreign/ public officials.

Due care must be taken in onboarding/ dealing with intermediaries:

- On-board intermediary only on merit;
- Conduct due diligence; and
- Execute contracts with Intermediaries, considering intermediary is aware of Eternal's Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy.

6. Books, records and internal controls

Employees must follow all applicable standards, principles, laws, regulations, and Company practices for accounting and financial reporting;

- i. All financial transactions should be adequately identified and properly and fairly recorded in appropriate books and accounting records available for inspection by the Board of Directors or other body with ultimate responsibility for the Company, as well as by auditors;
- ii. There are no "off the books" or secret accounts and no documents may be issued which do not fairly and accurately record the transactions to which they relate;
- iii. All accounts, invoices, memoranda and other documents and records relating to dealings with Third parties, should be prepared and maintained with strict accuracy and completeness;
- iv. All expenses must be accurately accounted for, include appropriate supporting documentation and be promptly entered into company records before they are reimbursed;
- v. The Finance Department of the Company shall maintain accounting procedures, financial reporting and controls, and the Governance, Risk & Compliance function shall design an internal audit program for the Company. Monitoring and auditing systems are in place to detect violations of Company policy and of applicable laws;
- vi. The Company shall retain all documents related to expenditure for eight (8) years from the date of incurring such expenses.

7. Communications and trainings

Employees are mandated to complete all required training, instructor-led, or web based, related to the Code of Conduct, and the Policy in a timely manner. The Governance Risk & Compliance team is responsible for dissemination of the Policy and arranges training for Employees at the time of joining the Company and on a periodic basis thereafter.

8. Raising your concern and action for non-observance

It is your responsibility to ensure compliance with the Policy. Employees are encouraged to consult with the Governance, Risk and Compliance (“GRC”) team to seek clarifications on any queries they may have. Anyone who witnesses a breach of this Policy is obliged to promptly speak up and escalate/ highlight via reporting channels (informant@eternal.com), as specified in the Code of Conduct or Vigil Mechanism and Whistleblower policy.

9. Compliance

The Governance Risk and Compliance Head and General Counsel shall be responsible for supervision of this Policy. Further, the GRC team conducts regular risk assessments to identify risks as part of Internal Audits and implement corrective actions (if any).

10. Breach of this policy

Breach of this Policy can lead to investigation and subsequent disciplinary and other actions up to and including termination of employment in accordance with Code of Conduct or Vigil Mechanism and Whistleblower policy.

11. Waivers

Any waiver of this Policy requires prior written approval of the Board

12. Amendment

Any change in the Policy shall be approved by the CEO of the Company or Board of Directors .

The Board of Directors shall have the right to withdraw and/or amend any part of this Policy or the entire Policy, at any time, as it deems fit, or from time to time, and the decision of the Board in this respect shall be final and binding..

13. Interpretation

In any circumstance where the terms of this Policy are inconsistent with any existing or newly enacted law, rule, regulation or standard governing the Company, the said law, rule, regulation or standard will take precedence over this Policy.

14. Version history

Version	Approved in	Description
Version 1	November 2021	Original Policy
Version 2	May 2023	Inclusion of paragraphs related to Compliance, Breach, Waiver, Amendment and Interpretation
Version 3	May 2024	Updation of Compliance para and other minor updates in line with best practices
Version 4	May 2025	Updation of sub-clause on Gifts